DAY 2

DAY 2 - : Siberian Tiger Park & Ice and Snow World

MEALS: BREAKFAST, LUNCH

- Visit Siberian Tiger Park, the world's largest breeding and conservation centre for Siberian tigers, and tour the park by cage style sightseeing vehicle to observe these majestic animals up close. You have the option to feed the tigers while on the vehicle at your own expense. Continue to Sun Island Snow Sculpture Art Expo, one of the main venues of the Harbin Ice and Snow Festival, featuring impressive large scale snow sculptures created by artists from around the world.
- Later, visit Harbin Ice and Snow World, Harbin's most famous winter attraction. Explore illuminated ice castles, ice sculptures, bridges, slides, and themed displays built entirely from ice blocks harvested from the Songhua River.
- If Ice and Snow World or Sun Island Snow Sculpture Art Expo is not yet operating due to seasonal conditions, alternative visits to Volga Manor, a Russian style theme park will be arranged.

DAY 4

DAY 4 - : China Snow Town & Ten-Mile Ice and Snow Gallery

MEALS: BREAKFAST, LUNCH

- Travel approximately 5-6 hours from Harbin to China Snow Town. Along the way, enjoy a snowmobile ride on Datudingzi Mountain, the highest mountain in Heilongjiang Province, offering beautiful winter scenery and snow-covered forest landscapes.
- Continue to the Ten-Mile Ice and Snow Gallery, known for its rime-covered trees, snow mushrooms, and pristine winter scenery. Visit the Alpine Zoo and enjoy included winter activities such as a Snow Dragon sled ride and Snow Spinner experience. Arrive in China Snow Town, famous for its deep snowfall, snow-covered rooftops, and traditional northeastern village atmosphere. In the evening, head to the observation area for views of the illuminated village. Accommodation is typically in a local guesthouse with traditional heated kang beds and simpler facilities than city hotels.
