Highlights

The Annapurna Circuit Trek via Tilicho Lake is one of the most iconic and diverse trekking routes in the world, offering adventurers an unforgettable journey through the stunning landscapes and rich cultural heritage of the Annapurna region in Nepal. Incorporating a detour to Tilicho Lake, the highest lake of its size in the world, this variation of the classic circuit trek adds an extra layer of adventure and scenic beauty to an already spectacular route.

Trip Overview

The Annapurna Circuit Trek via Tilicho Lake, once a top long-distance hike, now features motor roads reducing trekking days. However, it still offers diverse landscapes, cultures, and natural beauty, traversing lush forests, alpine meadows, and high mountain passes, including the 5,416-meter Thorong La Pass with views of Annapurna, Dhaulagiri, and Manaslu.

The Tilicho Lake detour, starting from Manang, adds a challenging yet rewarding route to the turquoise lake at 4,919 meters. The trek begins in Kathmandu, with a scenic drive to Besisahar or Chame. The route passes through forests, terraced fields, and ethnic villages of the Gurungs, Manangis, and Thakalis.

As the trek progresses, the landscape changes dramatically. Despite the arduous ascent, trekkers are rewarded with breathtaking views of snow-capped peaks.
