Package Overview

Highlights

Enjoy a scenic flight to and from Lukla, traversing suspension bridges and immersing yourself in Sherpa culture. Marvel at breathtaking mountain views, explore Namche Bazaar, and visit the Tyangboche Monastery. Walk alongside the Khumbu glacier, culminating in unforgettable experiences at Kalapatthar and Everest Base Camp itself.

Trip Overview

Embark on an unforgettable journey to the heart of the majestic Himalayas with the Everest Base Camp Trek! Located in the kingdom of Nepal, this trek offers adventurers the opportunity to stand at the foot of the world's tallest mountain, Mt. Everest. With over 30,000 trekkers making the journey each year, it has become an achievable goal for many.

Experience breathtaking landscapes, from soaring peaks to charming Sherpa villages, lush forests, and icy glacial moraines. Standing at the base of Mt. Everest is a life-changing moment that will leave a lasting impression. Nepal's beauty will capture your heart, and you may find yourself returning time and again.

We look forward to welcoming you back for more unforgettable adventures, including the Annapurna Base Camp Trek, Mardi Himal Trek, and many more. Your next adventure awaits in Nepal!

What To Expect?

Accommodation:

In Kathmandu, we offer standard tourist accommodations, with the option to upgrade as per your preference. Accommodations both in cities and during trekking will be provided on a twin-sharing basis, with single supplements available upon request at an additional cost. During the EBC Trek, you'll have the opportunity to enjoy authentic Nepalese cuisine, including Dal Bhat, as well as a variety of international dishes such as Tibetan, Continental, Italian, and Indian cuisines. Three main course meals will be provided during trekking, while breakfast will be included during your stay in Kathmandu.

Equipment and gears:

You are advised to consider the following equipment as essentials while packing. Please see below and follow the guidelines. Adjustments to the list can be managed according to our requirements, interests, duration of trip, and season of trip. We can find a variety of these gears to hire or buy in Kathmandu. Majority of the gears which are in sale in Kathmandu are locally manufactured (hence a lot cheaper) and some gears found here are imported from China and are obviously of better quality. We can find very high quality branded gears too in some famous stores in Kathmandu.

Itinerary

Day 1: Arrive in Kathmandu (1330m)

- Arriving at Kathmandu Airport, our office representative will meet you at the airport and transfer you to the hotel. Trip briefing and you will then have some free time to explore Thamel. (Overnight at hotel on BB basis).

Day-2: Fly to Lukla 2840m and Trek to Phakding (2,630m). 7 km

- An early morning breakfast in the hotel and then drive to the airport for the 35-minute scenic flight to Lukla at 2840m. Upon arrival, we go to meet the trekking porters and get ready for the trek. We begin by descending towards the Dudh Koshi River through the local Sherpa village (Overnight at tea house)

Day-3: Phakding to Namche Bazaar (3,440m), 10.5 Km. 6-7 hours walking.

- After breakfast we continue along the banks of the DudhKoshi crossing the suspension bridges laden with prayer flags, we reach a place called Manjo, from where Sagarmartha National Park. After entering the national park, the trail goes steeply up, with breathtaking views for more than 2 hours to reach Namche Bazar. It is a beautiful walk through the Rhododendron and pine forest. (Overnight at tea house)

Day 4: Acclimatization day in Namche Bazaar (3,440m)

- Acclimatization day, we don't do much walking today but we will enjoy breathtaking views of the white mountains including the top of the world (your first view of Everest) from the viewpoint just above Namche. We visit a local Sherpa museum, and the national park headquarters office and take a little walk around Namche bazaar. (Overnight at tea house)

Itinerary

Day-5: Namche to Debuche (3,800m), 13 Km. 6 hours walking.

- The trekking trail is plain and en route the trail will descend slightly to Dudhkoshi at 3250m. And climb up to Tengboche. And today's view from the trekking will be incredible including Mount Everest. Visit Tengboche Gompa, which has a background of Ama Dablam, Mt. Everest, and trek another hour to Debuche for overnight.

Day-6: Debuche to Dingboche (4,240m), 9.5 Km. 5 hours walking.

- The trail slightly descends through lush forest in the beginning, then gradually climbs up to the valley's highest year-round settlement of Pangboche (3,860m). You will continue ascending in the afternoon through alpine meadows and yak herds; finally reaching Dingboche overnight.

Day-7: Dingboche (4,400m) Acclimatization day

- Go higher sleep lower, better to use this method to acclimatize your body. Today we will hike to the nearest hill from where you can have beautiful photo-taking opportunities. There are up close views of Taweche, Ama Dablam, Cholatse, Island Peak, and Thamserku, as well as Imja Valley. Stay the night in Dingboche.

Day-8: Dingboche to Lobuche (4,910m), 8.1km. 4-5 hours walking.

- We will walk along the riverside which is from Khumbu glacier for 2 hours and we cross the frozen river and climb to the top of a small hill called Thukla. There are many monuments to Everest climbers along this route. From the Thukla hill, gradually ascent towards Labuche and stay overnight at Tea House. Approx 4-5 hrs.

Itinerary

Day-9: Labuche to Gorakshep to Everest Base Camp (5,365m) 11.4 Km. 7 hours

- We will get an early start for our trek to Everest Base Camp. After 2-3 hours of hiking we reach Gorakshep (5190m) which is your overnight stay place, check in the room leave your bags enjoy the hot foods, and continue the trek to Everest base camp (5365m) for another 2 hours. From EBC, the view is one of the most spectacular anywhere in the World, after a few photographs you will return to the Gorakshep same route which takes about 1.5 hours.

Day-10: Hike to Kalapattar (5545m.) and back down to Pheriche(4240m), 15.9 km. 7-8 hours.

- Early morning hike to Kalapattar(1.9km) 2 hours, for sunrise view, one of the best views from the EBC trip. After taking a few snaps while you are on the top of Kalapattar, return to Gorakshep for breakfast. Check out from the tea house and trek down to Pheriche for the night.

Day-11: Trek back to Namche Bazar (3440m,) 18 km. 8 hours.

- You will descend approximately 800 m. all the down to Namche Bazaar same route and stay overnight at the tea house, enjoy a hot shower and good food, and have goodnight sleep. It's a long walk but it's easier to go downhill, at least you can breathe.

Itinerary

Day-12: Trek back to Lukla (2840m.) 16.4 km. 7-8 hours.

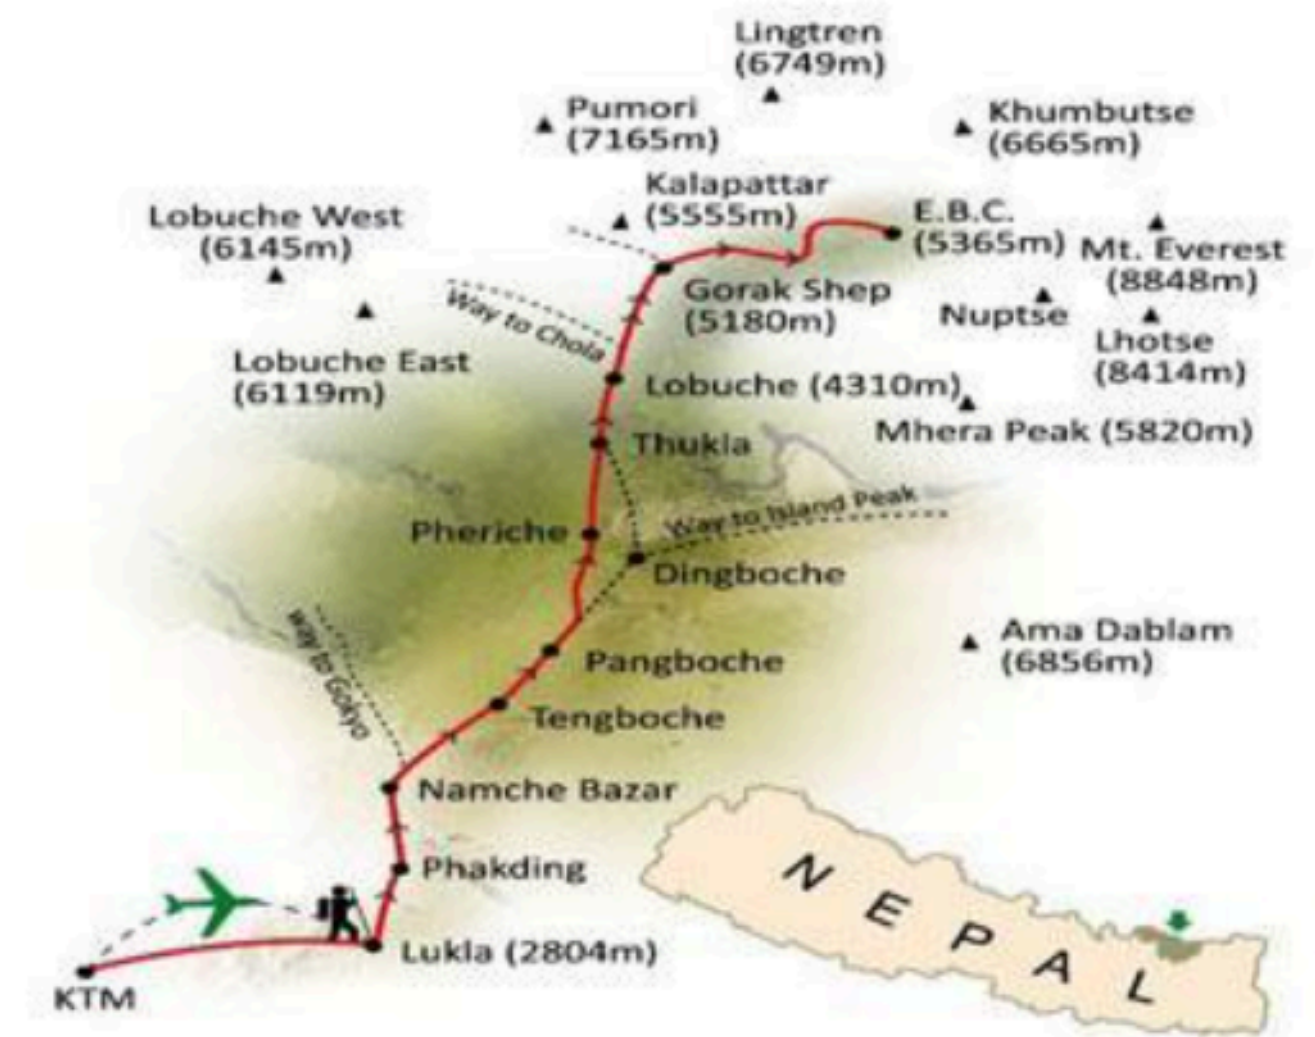

- Namche to Lukla drop down 600m. And enjoy your last night at the Himalayas.

Day-13: 35-minute scenic flight from Lukla to Kathmandu

- Time to say bye-bye to your porters and thank them for carrying your bag pack. your guide will arrange the boarding pass and have another scenic flight back to Kathmandu. After check-in and settling down will be a free and easy programme.
