What To Expect?

Mount Bromo (2329m) is a part of the Bromo Tengger Semeru National Park that covers a massive area of 800 square km.

A predawn hike up Mount Bromo brings you to its active caldera and views of breathtaking sunrise.

Mount Ijen (2769m), a stratovolcano with the most acidic lake in the world, entices adventurers with its surreal blue fire and picturesque turquoise crater lake.

We invite you on this journey to witness the magnificent landscapes, their unique geological formations & cultural heritage.
